P.C.

1. Civil Application seeks recalling of the order dated 28th March 2005. By that order the writ petition itself was directed to be treated as representation and the FCI was directed to decide the representation within six weeks. However the same could not be done. Therefore the present civil application is filed for recalling that order.

2. In our opinion, the order is not in any manner liable to be recalled. The applicant FCI can decide the representation in accordance with the law within six weeks from today. With this observation, the Civil Application is disposed of.
